“Through our surveys and incoming requests, it was clear that our members were looking for a source for this type of business coverage,” said Tim Witsman, president of WIBA. “Many times small business owners don’t know how to approach a specific coverage need such as Workers’ Compensation. WIBA will now serve as the point of contact and help businesses find the right insurance solutions.”

WIBA has partnered with Wichita-based and WIBA member M &M Insurance Associates for this coverage.
